Sir Edmund Hillary's advice for the protection of the environment

1061. SHRI AJIT P. K. JOGI: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Sir Edmund Hillary, the first person who conquered Mount Everest has recently given an advice with regard to the protection of the environment of Everest, for putting restriction in the Himachal area and for imposing a total ban on the tourist traffic for a minimum period of five years; and

(b) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI Z. R. ANSARI): (a) Sir Edmund Hillary has recommended that tourism in the Himalayas should be sensibly controlled but not prohibited. At the Pacific Area Travel Association (PATA) Conference in Kathmandu, he put forward the suggestion that due to accumulation of rubbish and waste, the Mount Everest should be closed to the mountaineers for a five year period to enable the mountain to regenerate. Sir, Edmund Hillary has not given any suggestion specifically pertaining to Himachal Pradesh.

(b) In order to protect the environment of the ecologically fragile Himalayan areas, it is necessary that tourism in this area is well regulated; and, a number of measures have been taken by the concerned State Governments in this rgard. Directions have also been issued by the Government of India under the Environment (Protection) Act, 1986, for regulating tourism in the Doon Valley.
